

Request a Presentation

Gabby's Grief Center offers counselors and helping professionals, such as clergy, school teachers/staff, and hospice professionals, with training opportunities in childhood bereavement. We make every effort to meet your requests. Some considerations, such as geographic location, resources, or scheduling, may limit our availability to meet your request. A member of our staff will follow up to determine how we can connect and provide support.

How may we support you?

Please describe the reason for your request so we can tailor our information to better meet your needs. Some examples of helpful context: mental health professionals looking to gain a better understanding of grief, school professionals working with students exposed to grief and/or trauma, master's level class with students looking for internships, an organization, business, non-profit or community resource looking to share information for your served population, etc.*

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
